

COOK HOLDS SEAT IN THE ASSEMBLY

That Body Decides Against
Vandercook By Vote
Of 81 to 14.

ANTI-PASS LAW MOVES

With Only Thirteen Opposing Votes It Was Sent to Second Reading.

FIGHT OVER STATE PRINTING

Madison, Wis., Feb. 6.—By a vote of 81 to 14 the assembly today adopted the committee report deciding against G. E. Vandercook in his contest for the seat held by Alfred Cook.

The anti-pass constitutional amendment went through its second passage in the assembly with thirteen opposing votes.

In the senate Jones introduced a compulsory vaccination bill. Senator Mills introduced a bill authorizing the taking of the state printing away from the government seat at Madison and permitting a division of the contract among different bidders.

CITIES GIVEN EXTRA POWERS.

Authorized to Build and Operate Electric Light Plants.

Madison, Feb. 6.—Assemblyman Andrews of West Superior introduced a very important bill giving common council remarkable powers for the purchase and operation of electric light plants. Under the provisions of the measure, when the city thinks that it desires to purchase a plant, the council can pass a measure with that end in view and serve notice on the company that the purchase is intended. Then the company must file a valuation with the city clerk. If the council cannot agree with the company as to the price, three arbitrators are to be appointed to fix the amount. From their award either party may appeal to the circuit court. The bill also gives cities the right to erect and maintain competing plants.

Compulsory Vaccination.

If a bill introduced by Assemblyman Collins of Stevens Point becomes a law the people of this state will have to be vaccinated, whether they want to or not. It is a bill entitled "A bill to provide for vaccination," and it is likely to kick up a lively row in the state, since the public is not unanimously in favor of vaccination. It provides that whenever in the judgment of the state board of health smallpox is likely to infect a community and spread, the board shall issue an order to local boards of health for the general vaccination of the inhabitants of the locality.

New Agriculture Building.

This afternoon the claims committee have a hearing on the bill to appropriate something like $250,000 for a new building for the college of agriculture at the university. The committee will hear arguments on the bill but will not act upon it. Senator Mills, who is at the head of the claims committee, says that the committee will stick to its original proposition to have all of the appropriation bills on hand before acting upon any of them.

Primary Election Bill.

There will not be a hearing on the primary election bill before the end of this week and possibly not until later.

Discussion of the bill is growing constantly and it will not be long before sentiment in regard to it begins to crystallize. In fact it may almost be said now that there is a sentiment crystallizing in favor of giving the primary election idea a trial before adopting it for everything.

Senator Stout is preparing a bill to provide for representation for Wisconsin at the St. Louis World's fair, which is to be held in 1903. The fair is to be on the lines of the Omaha and Pan-American fairs, and the senator is studying the bills that were passed for their benefit before introducing his bill. He has not yet determined the amount of the appropriation to be made.

KAISER LEFT FOR GERMANY.

Full Honors Paid the German Emperor as He Quit England.

London, Feb. 6.—The Kaiser left Sheerness for Germany this morning. The imperial yacht Hohenzollern was accompanied by the German cruiser Nympha and the British warships Niobe and Minerva. Full honors were paid the emperor upon his departure.

GOV. NASH MEANS BUSINESS.

Bound to Stop Jeffries-Ruhlin Fight at any Cost.

Columbus, O., Feb. 6.—Governor Nash has called a meeting for late today of the state emergency board. It is said that it is for the purpose of making provisions for the expenses of troops should it become necessary to stop the Cincinnati fight.

CAUSED GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

Twenty Bodies Recovered at a Petroleum Explosion in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 6.—An explosion of petroleum tanks at Baku has caused a great loss of life. Twenty bodies have been recovered and twenty more believed to be in the ruins.

HAT FOR MARTINELLI

Statement That He Is To Be Made Cardinal—Notification Is on the Way.

New York, Feb. 6.—"Archbishop Sebastian Martinelli, apostolic delegate to the United States, will be created a cardinal by the consistory, which meets here in March," says a cablegram from Rome to the Brooklyn Eagle. This is stated as an absolute fact.

Mgr. Martinelli has already been informed of his promotion, and he is preparing to leave for Rome. This is not a great surprise to him, as he received an intimation of it last December though there was no confirmation of it.

"Mgr. Martinelli will come to Rome to receive the red hat from the pope as soon as the official notification of his appointment reaches America and a successor as a papal delegate is named."

POWERS DEMAND DEATH PENALTY

Pekin, Feb. 6.—The French minister in behalf of the foreign envoys yesterday read the indictment against fifteen Chinese officials and demanded that the death penalty be inflicted in each case. Li Hung Chang stated that the emperor acquiesced in the death sentence in all cases except those of Prince Tuan and Duke Lan. These two, he said, would be degraded and banished.

ROYALTY IS BUSY AT MATCH MAKING

Czarowitch May Wed Victoria, Daughter of Edward VII.—Kinship is an Obstacle.

London, Feb. 6.—Delicate negotiations are in progress between the courts of Great Britain and Russia looking to a marriage between the Grand Duke Michael and Princess Victoria, only daughter of King Edward VII. Politics rather than affection is said to be back of the proposed match.

Standing in the way of the marriage is the ironclad law of the Russian church forbidding marriages between first cousins. The czarowitch, Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, is a son of the dowager empress, who is a sister to Queen Alexandra of Great Britain, the mother of Princess Victoria.

INDIANS AMBUSH MEXICAN TROOPS; SLAUGHTER IN A MOUNTAIN PASS

Savage Yaquis Fall Upon a Pursuing Force and Kill Over One Hundred—Redskin Revolt in Mexico Is Spreading Fast.

Potain, Mex., Feb. 6.—Mexican troops were ambushed by Yaqui Indians in the mountain pass east of Ures and fully 100 were killed and wounded before they could extricate themselves. The battle occurred in the most rugged portion of the mountain range not far from the main camp of the Indians. Friday morning a band of about 150 Indians appeared at a fortified ranch and attacked a small garrison. The Mexicans sent for reinforcements and at noon 500 men arrived. These proceeded to drive the Indians back, but the Yaquis retreated slowly and an incessant fire was kept up. The soldiers pursued the Indians all night and at daybreak were well up in the mountains. It was near noon when the soldiers halted in a dry canyon of considerable depth. While the troops were resting in the canyon the Indians attacked them and by effective work more than 100 were mowed down before the command succeeded in effecting its escape.

As soon as army headquarters could be communicated with a large number of reinforcements were dispatched to the spot where the fight occurred but when they arrived the Indians and their wounded had disappeared. Many of the dead Mexicans had been mutilated.

WILL FIGHT AGAINST ANY TAX ON BEES

Wisconsin Keepers' Association Meets at Madison and Decides to Fight Bill in the Legislature.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 6.—The seventeenth annual convention of the Wisconsin beekeepers' association opened here yesterday afternoon with fifty members present.

Among the speakers were E. R. Root of Medina, O., president of the National beekeepers' association; W. Z. Hutchinson of Flint, Mich., and George W. York of Chicago.

Prices of honey and the exhibit at the Pan-American exposition were discussed. A bill is now before the Wisconsin legislature taxing bees and requiring a license fee of $1 a month for each hive transferred for the purpose of extracting honey, the money to be paid into the treasury of the town moved into.

This bill the association will vigorously oppose. A resolution was passed urging the establishment of an apiculture department at the university experiment station.

BADGER FARMERS IN MASS-MEETING

Agriculturists and Stock Raisers Convened at Madison and Discuss Questions of Interest.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 6.—The first agricultural mass meeting in the history of the state opened yesterday under the auspices of the state agricultural society, with over 100 farmers and stockmen present. George McKerron, superintendent of farm institutes, presided. Swine, cattle raising and good roads were discussed. Dean W. A. Henry of the university agricultural college delivered an address.

By a vote of 100 to 2 the convention endorsed the resolution now before the legislature to amend the state constitution so that the state may aid in the improvement of public highways. Last evening Governor La Follette made an address of welcome to the visitors.

MRS. CARRIE NATION IS AGAIN SET FREE

As a Result of Her Raids Topeka is "Dry" Today—Serious Trouble Feared.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Nation's case for disturbing the peace Monday when she raided a joint was dismissed this morning. She demanded an immediate trial and threatened to bring suit against the city unless the same was granted. As a result of yesterday's raid Topeka is "dry." It is believed that serious trouble is imminent. The feel-

FISH COMMISSION MAKE A REPORT

An Increased Output of Fry During the Year Just Passed—Demand for Fish is Very Large.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 6.—The biennial report of the commissioner of Fisheries, sent to the legislature, is a long document giving a resume of the work of the commission in detail.

The report shows that the total output of fry to have increased from 80,201,000 in 1899 to 103,980,000 in 1900. In 1899 some 15,000 white bass were transplanted from the lakes where most abundant to the waters of Waukesha county, with good results. The total stock of breeding fish now on hand in the Madison and Bayfield hatcheries is 128,255, including brook and rainbow trout. The stock carrying capacity of the Madison hatchery is 60,000; of the Bayfield hatchery 300,000. The commission declares the water and grounds at Madison are unfavorable to the propagation of black bass. Better results are anticipated at Bayfield.

The demand for fish and fry exceeds the supply capacity during the past two years nothing has been expended at Madison for improvements. $8,701.26 has been used at Oshkosh and Bayfield. The total running expense and superintendence of the hatcheries in 1899 was $28,163.76, Bayfield heading the list. Expenses of transportation amounted to $4,630.46 in 1899; in 1900, to $4,003.88. The eggs now in progress of hatching amount to 98,232,000. The treasury report shows a balance of $23,199.55 on hand. The report bears witness to the faithful services of James Nevin.

CONFINE 14 MEN IN PASSENGER CAR

Merrill, Wis., Health Authorities Lock Passengers in Smoker After Smallpox Case Is Discovered.

Merrill, Wis., Feb. 6.—Fourteen men are quarantined in a passenger coach between Third and Fourth streets in this city. Conductor Gid Little, on train No. 2 on the Milwaukee road, discovered a man supposed to have the small pox before the train reached Tomahawk last night. He wired to the board of health in that city and the police removed the patient at that place. All who were exposed were locked in the smoker and brought to Merrill.

CLAIMED HE WAS INNOCENT.

Lorenzo Priora Executed for Murder at Sing Sing Today.

Sing Sing, Feb. 6.—Lorenzo Priora was executed here this morning for the murder in New York of Vincenzo Garagusi, an Italian banker. Priora went to death protesting his innocence.

School Building Destroyed.

West Superior, Wis., Feb. 6.—The William Kimball public school was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. There were nine women teachers and 250 children, most of them young, in the building at the time of the fire. The smoke was first discovered upstairs and the signal was given by the ringing of the gong. Every child in the building got out in an orderly manner, the larger ones helping to carry out the kindergarten children.

To Expel Hazards.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The senate this morning passed the military academy bill with an amendment providing for the summary expulsion of any cadet who participated in hazing.

EAU CLAIRE VISITED BY FIERCE FLAMES

The Hayden Building Burned Down This Morning—Loss and Insurance of Occupants.

Eau Claire, Feb. 6.—Fire broke out from an unknown cause this morning in the Hayden building on the third floor occupied by the Union Manufacturing company. The building was gutted. The losses and insurance of the Union Manufacturing company are $2,000 on clothes, on stock $7,500. Mrs. Florence Hayden damage on building $4,500, insurance $1,000. Knights of Pythias damage on building, etc., $4,500; insurance $2,900. Altis' meat market damaged $3,000, insurance $2,000; Duffener's saloon damage, $2,000, insurance, $4,500. Daily Leader in next building fire damaged $1,000 covered by insurance.

BOOM PAUL WILL NOT BE INVITED

Boer Leader Cannot be a Guest at Wilhelm's Wedding—Would Anger England.

The Hague, Feb. 6.—This has been diplomatists' day at the marriage festivities. The queen and Duke Heinrich received for the third time the congratulations of the ministers of all the foreign powers at the palace. Dr. Leyds, who still has diplomatic standing at the Hague as the representative of the Transvaal, attended the reception, but Mr. Kruger was at Utrecht undergoing treatment for his eyes. Neither will be present at the wedding although both are extremely popular with the Dutch, who are passionate partisans of the Boer cause, good neutrals as they may be in business and diplomatic relations.

Queen Wilhelmina has treated Mr. Kruger with almost royal distinction, but she has not ventured to give offense to Great Britain by inviting him to the wedding, and thereby excluding the British minister from the function.

Aged Woman's Manifold Services.

A story comes from Lincolnshire, England, of an old woman in her ninety-first year who acts as parish clerk, attending all weddings, christenings and funerals, keeps the church in order, substitutes for church warden in taking the collection when that official is absent, and has even acted as organ-blower and bell-ringer on occasion.

CARNEGIE SELLS HIS IRON STOCK

Gigantic Deal Said To Have Been Consummated Last Monday.

MORGAN COMBINE BUYS

Carnegie Owns 54 Per Cent of Street Railway Stock Worth $160,000,000.

HIS SHARE IS $85,000,000

New York, Feb. 6.—The Tribune will say that negotiations for the sale of Andrew Carnegie's controlling interest in the stock of the Carnegie company were brought to a successful conclusion Monday, J. Pierpont Morgan and his associates being the purchasers. The terms of the transaction cannot at this time be announced, but the transaction is a colossal one. Mr. Carnegie held nearly 54 per cent of the $160,000,000 of the Carnegie company stock. This stock has not been listed on any stock exchange, but $1,500 was recently paid for a $1,300 share in the Carnegie company. Assuming that Mr. Carnegie has disposed of his holdings at par, he will receive fully $85,000,000 for his interest, while at the same time he will retain his 53 or 54 per cent interest in the $100,000,000 bond issue of the Carnegie company.

Object to Keep Peace in Steel.

The object aimed at by Mr. Morgan and the interests allied with him when treating with Mr. Carnegie was the assurance of an enduring peace in the steel industry of the United States, and this condition is now believed to have been obtained. Mr. Morgan has been an influential factor in the Federal Steel company, the National Tube company and the American Bridge company, and latterly, it is understood, in the American Steel and Wire company; while the "Moore properties"—the National Steel company, the American Tinsmith company, the American Steel Hoop company and the American Sheet Steel company—have shown a tendency to work in harmony with the other corporations named.

DRESS FOR MEN IN '01

Correct Fashions as Decried by the Merchants' National Exchange Convention, Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—Here is the correct dress for 1901, as decreed by the Merchant Tailors' National Exchange convention, which opened today at the Continental Hotel.

Coat—For fitting with military back, somewhat looser and somewhat longer than last year.

Trouser—Cut with peg-top effect, large at knee, small at bottom.

Waistcoat—In suiting, single-breasted, cut high and without collar, sharp pointed at bottom.

Overcoat—Accordingly long and loose, with frock back, such as a newmarket.

Raglan—Discarded save for rain coats.

The exhibit of 1901 styles was managed by Chairman Albert Matthews of Chicago.

The new garments quickly gained geographical notoriety according to the residence of the creators. The "Chicago sleeve" was noticeable for its puffy mold, while the twentieth century driving cape, from St. Louis was of a most generous girth proportions. In the plaited sack coat, with yoke belt and bottom, Boston earned a quiet smile, with an Inverness overcoat, which combined four distinct styles, hailed from a city in southern Ohio.

The convention adopted a resolution denouncing the bankruptcy law and urging congress to make a better one.

THE NEWS FROM COUNTY TOWNS

AFTON.

Afton, Feb. 5.—All who are interested in educational problems should make it a point to hear Prof. A. J. Hutton at the Baptist church on Friday evening of this week. Prof. Hutton's lecture deals with topics that are being much discussed in educational circles, and Afton people are fortunate in being able to listen to their exposition by so excellent an authority. All are cordially invited.

Word reaches Afton of the arrival of a little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Gilbert at Independence, Iowa.

Solid Rock Camp No. 1127, R. N. A. will meet on Wednesday evening of this week.

John G. Kilmer has recovered from his attack of diphtheria and the Kilmer house is now out of quarantine.

H. G. Nelson of Newark came over Sunday to see the little granddaughter who arrived at the home of Prof. and Mrs. A. G. Henry last Friday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Seales died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Moore, near Beloit last Friday morning, after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Seales was a former resident of Afton and was well known in this vicinity. She leaves four sons: Edward, of Chicago; Thomas A., of St. Paul; William H., of Lancaster, Wis.; and Charles H., of Harvard, Ill.; and two daughters: Mrs. Martha Hawkins, of Janesville; and Mrs. Julia Moore, of Beloit. The funeral was held at the Moore home last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Howland Hanson, officiating. Interment was in Afton cemetery.

Final preparations are being made by the Afton Woodmen for the entertainment of their Janesville neighbors and other invited guests next Thursday evening.

The Y. P. S. C. E. chicken pie supper held at the church last Friday evening was not a financial success, owing to sickness prevailing in this vicinity.

Edward Coats has purchased the John Marsh place, about one and one half miles north of Afton on the east bank of Rock river.

Why don't the promoters of the proposed electric road from Beloit to Janesville do the wise thing and plan to come via Afton, where the road would be patronized, both in freight traffic and passengers, for an excess of what could be looked for over any other of the projected routes. If the road is to be built as a business venture it should certainly seek a route which offers the greatest advantages for business, and this the Afton route pre-eminently does.

ROCK PRAIRIE.

Rock Prairie, Feb. 5.—A heavy wind and snow storm struck here yesterday, drifting the snow so as to effectually block the roads in some places.

Mrs. McLay, of Janesville, who spent most of her life in Rock Prairie, died at her Janesville home late Sunday night of pneumonia.

John R. Clerk will deliver his famous lecture, "To and Fro in London," at the Scotch church, February 12th. This is the third number on an unusually excellent course. The admission is but 30 cents and a splendid crowd should be a certainty.

John and George Clark spent most of last week visiting Bert Clark, of Madison. They report a splendid time.

Mrs. Brown, who has been ill with the grip is recovering, but Wm. Brown is still confined to the house.

A bob load of Janesville young people spent last Friday evening at the home of James Menzies.

Remember the lecture Feb. 12. Ev.

NOT HEREDITARY

In the main, consumption is not hereditary; it is infectious.

People are too afraid of heredity; better not think of the subject at all. Infection occurs continually.

Low vital force is hereditary which gives consumption its chance. And infection plants it.

Between the two, the crop is a big one: about one-sixth of the human race, so far as is known.

We suppose it needn't be a per cent, if people would take fair care and Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

The care saves life in all ways; the emulsion is specially aimed at the lungs, beside its general food-effect.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

everybody come and enjoy the rare treat with us.

Prof. A. J. Hutton delivered a lecture in the town hall on an education revival last Tuesday night.

AVON.

Avon, Feb. 5.—Mr. Anton Anderson and Miss Mary Ringan, both of Avon, were married on Jan. 31. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's brother-in-law Mr. John Swaim. Mr. Anderson has rented a place north of Brohead in which the happy couple will make their home.

Mr. Albert Swinson will move to Spring Grove about March 1, known as the Zimmerman farm.

There was a necktie social at the M. E. church last Friday night and everybody enjoyed a very nice time.

Mr. John Freedland is going on the Horace Beales farm about March 1.

Mr. O. F. Clark has gone back to Chicago to see how Mrs. Clark is getting along after the operation.

HARMONY.

Harmony, Feb. 6.—A severe snow storm passed over this vicinity Sunday, leaving the roads considerably blocked with snow.

The Harmony W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Flora Rice, on Wednesday p. m., Feb. 13, instead of Thursday.

Mrs. Robert Stewart and daughter, Martha, are on the sick list; also Mrs. McNally.

The Harmony W. C. T. U. will hold a Valentine social at Mr. H. Hayward's on Feb. 14. Every one is invited to come and have a good time.

The young people had a pleasant time at the party at W. C. Wilbur's on Saturday night.

Some from this way attended the farewell party given for Miss Inez Wilbur, of Milton. Miss Inez leaves soon for California.

EMERALD GROVE.

Emerald Grove, Feb. 6.—Don't forget to attend the play at the church on Friday evening of this week.

Doors open at 7 p. m. Curtain rises at 8 p. m. sharp.

Miss Priscilla Fitch is the proud possessor of a new piano.

Mrs. David Jones has recovered from an attack of the grip.

P. Kemp had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable Jersey cows with milk fever.

We were glad to see Harry Ransom at church last Sunday.

The ladies' auxiliary meets at the church parlors for dinner on Thursday next.

Mrs. A. D. Barless entertained a few friends on Saturday evening.

The old telephone has been removed from the store to the residence of Robert Jones.

RICHMOND.

Richmond, Feb. 6.—Aaron Thompson of Fairfield was a caller here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dehnert and family will remove to their northern home next week. We regret the loss of such good neighbors from our community.

Will Bright of Fort Atkinson was a visitor here recently.

Will Walker of Delavan, agent for Morris' drug store, was here on business Thursday.

The funeral of Ellsworth Gage, which occurred on Thursday, was in charge of the M. W. A., of which the deceased was a member, and was largely attended. Among the floral offerings was a beautiful pillow given by the Richmond camp.

Miss Anna DeLaney, of the White-water high school, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Miss Lottie Stoller attended a masquerade in Fort Atkinson last week, and was again successful in securing first prize for the prettiest costume. The prize was eight dollars in cash.

A number of our young people will attend a cinch party in Whitewater Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James Hennessey, who has been quite ill, is convalescent.

The funeral services of Mrs. Calkins, who died in California, in November, will be held at the Richmond church Sunday, Feb. 10.

Miss Effie Keith was employed as seamstress in the home of Mrs. H. W. Calkins last week.

BRODHEAD.

Brohead, Feb. 6.—From a personal letter to Dr. Owen, from Mr. O. E. Terry, we learn that Mr. and Mrs. Terry reached Deming, New Mexico, on Friday, Jan. 25, and are nicely settled in a private boarding house. He states that there are several disagreeable features about the country which do not commend it as a resort, but that these are overshadowed by the delightful climate, fine water and the social characteristics of the inhabitants. They expect to remain in Deming several weeks and will probably visit with Mr. Willie Brown at El Paso before returning.

Miss Kittie Bush went to Evansville Thursday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and son, Otto, of Monroe, were guests of Mrs. M.

Schempp on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. E. E. Graham spent Thursday in Janesville with her sister, Mrs. Reed. Mrs. Reed visited in this city on Tuesday.

Mrs. Cora Park returned to Milwaukee last Saturday, after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wash Mitchell.

Mr. C. W. Carpenter returned home Thursday evening from a visit of over a week at his daughter's, in Chicago.

Withers—Nicholas—At the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Nicholas, Wednesday, Jan. 30, 1901, by the father of the bride, Mr. Scott Withers of West Superior and Miss Hattie Nicholas of this city were united in marriage.

ROCK RIVER.

Rock River, Feb. 6.—Joseph Fassett is very sick with pneumonia.

Elmer Vincent is hauling lumber from Edgerton for his new barn.

Several from here attended the farmers' institute last week; also the entertainment Wednesday evening.

Herb Grandall returned from Wood county Thursday where he had been land looking.

E. D. Vincent, Mrs. Thorpe, Artie Thorpe and Florence Thorpe attended the funeral of A. D. Williams at Janesville last Wednesday.

Lottie and Carl Gray of Johnstown, Hattie Brown of Milton college, and Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Davis, of Milton, were visitors at church last Sunday.

There will be a measuring social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Davis Wednesday evening, Feb. 6. Supper will be served and a general good time is expected. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Lena Green and Mrs. N. M. Rose have been on the sick list the past week but are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pells and children of Albion, visited friends on the River road Friday.

Mrs. R. McHenry died at her home last Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday at 10 o'clock, Rev. L. A. Platts of Milton officiating.

Work on the ice began this week. Anson Bliven of Albion, and Mrs. John Harris and son, Clarence, were callers in this vicinity Sunday.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Mazie Trumbull, the clever little soubrette, who will play "Baggage" in Charles H. Hoyt's famous farce, "A Brass Monkey," has made a great hit in this part. She is a talented little comedienne, who can really act, sing and dance. Her stage methods are very refined and her comedy work is entirely devoid of coarseness, which is far too often considered an adequate substitute for ability.

Mr. George V. Lederer's original Shaftesbury theater, London, and New York Casino production of the "Belle of New York" will be the attraction at the Myers Grand soon. This organization is the same which, after a season of two hundred and fifty nights of pronounced success at the Casino, New York, went to London for six hundred and seventy-five performances played at the Shaftesbury theater, before the most enthusiastic of audiences.

DRAMATIZATION OF MILL ON THE FLOSS

Miss Ida Benfy Successfully Presents This Difficult But Interesting Romance.

Under the auspices of the Peoples' lecture course Miss Ida Benfy gave a dramatization of George Eliot's "Mill on the Floss" last evening at the Congregational church. In spite of the cold a good sized audience was present but not so large as usually attends these entertainments.

Miss Benfy essayed a difficult feat in attempting to dramatically interpret a story where much of the interest is conferred by the author's peculiar gifts of analysis. The lady succeeded very well, however, and was able to sustain the various impersonations through to the end, to maintain a steady interest and to betray no great signs of fatigue. She was entirely unassisted and took no intermissions.

Perhaps the best impersonation of all was that of Mr. Tulliver who spoke in the dialect of George Eliot's own native country. He was the ignorant, pigheaded, kind hearted man whose utterances were strictly original and not over referred. He was consistent all of the way through and occasionally rose to an almost tragic intensity.

Maggie, the one character of the story, is to many the most lovable of all of George Eliot's women. She is not a mere abstraction, nor a woman with a mission, nor a tiresome female encyclopedia, but a very beautiful, romantic highsouled young woman, and as such Miss Benfy portrayed her true to life.

Her unselfishness, her devotion to duty and her human weaknesses endeared her vastly more to the average man and woman than if she had been free from the failures of her sex. Her tragic death in attempting to rescue her selfish son of a brother was the fitting climax to a whole life of self sacrifice.

Miss Benfy is a remarkably pretty woman and as graceful as she is handsome. She wore a decolette empire gown of yellow satin spangled in a design and with train enough to be easily managed. Her voice betrayed a slight lisp as she began, but the consciousness of this soon wore away and the audience listened with pleasure to the close.

Art Room Equipment.

The new drawing desks for the art room at the high school have arrived and were set in place yesterday. The desk is the 20th century pattern, consisting of an iron tripod which supports the leaf and model shelf. It is furnished with three drawers and the leaf can be adjusted at any angle.

The art class contains between thirty and forty pupils, mostly young ladies. They are now doing black board work to obtain freedom of arm movement. The new room has been in use about ten days.

MANY OF THE BRITONS FAIL.

Appalling List of Dead in South Africa.

MONTH'S DEATHS OVER 800.

Total Death List from Beginning of the War Shows 12,989 Victims—Further Reports on the Modderfontein Rush—Lourenzo Marquez in Danger.

London, Feb. 6.—The war office has issued a very heavy South African casualty list, showing, in addition to thirteen killed and seventy-seven wounded in action, eighty-two deaths from disease during the present month. Last month thirty-one officers and 800 non-commissioned officers and men were killed in action or died from disease. The total death list from the beginning of the war shows 12,989 victims. Officials have been dispatched to watch all the bays along the west coast of Cape Colony against the landing of mercenaries or arms. A special dispatch from Cape Town says that General Dewet, according to Cape Town reports, intends to annex various districts of Cape Colony and then to commandeer men and supplies, although he is now urging the colonists not to join him. It is reported that the Boers commanded by Blake are threatening Lourenzo Marquez and that Portugal has requested British assistance. The foreign office has heard nothing of the developments of the last forty-eight hours. It is also reported here that British troops are advancing rapidly toward the Portuguese frontier.

Two Hundred British Captured. Cape Town, Feb. 6.—The Boers captured 200 British when they rushed Modderfontein Jan. 29. The prisoners were subsequently released. Thirty British were killed or wounded. The newly formed guard for the Rand mines left Stellingbosch for Johannesburg Wednesday. An order has been gazetted permitting the importation of goods into the Transvaal, subject to a military permit.

Boer Meeting in Germany. Berlin, Feb. 6.—Further reports of the enthusiastic pro-Boer meeting held in Frankfurt-on-Main say that the audience was addressed by Mr. Dewet, a relative of the famous Boer general. The Boer delegate made a stirring speech to which the audience responded by adopting a resolution appealing to Great Britain's sense of justice and humanity. At the close of the meeting Dewet was recalled and carried through the hall amid the wildest enthusiasm.

KING'S MESSAGE TO PEOPLE. Will Endeavor to Follow in His Mother's Footsteps.

London, Feb. 6.—King Edward VII. has sent the following message to all the British colonies and dependencies: To My People Beyond the Seas: The countless messages of loyal sympathy that I have received from every part of my dominions over seas testify to the universal grief in which the whole empire now mourns the loss of my beloved mother.

In the welfare and prosperity of her subjects throughout Greater Britain the queen ever evinced a heartfelt interest. She saw with thankfulness the steady progress which, under the wide extension of self-government, they had made during her reign. She warmly appreciated their unfailing loyalty to her throne and person and was proud to think of those who nobly fought and died for the empire's cause in South Africa.

I have already declared that it will be my constant endeavor to follow the great example which has been bequeathed to me. In these endeavors I shall have confidence in the devotion and sympathy of the people and of their several representative assemblies throughout my vast dominions. With such loyal support I will, with the blessing of God, solemnly work for the promotion of the common welfare and security of our great empire, over which I have been called to reign.

The messages are addressed to the representatives of the sovereign in the various colonies and will be by them widely communicated among the people.

King Edward has gazetted the following to his subjects throughout the empire:

Windsor Castle, Feb. 4, 1901.—To My People: Now that the last scene has passed in the noble, ever glorious life of my beloved mother, the queen, I am anxious to endeavor to follow in her footsteps, devoting myself to the utmost of my powers to maintaining and promoting the highest interests of my people, and to a diligent and zealous fulfillment of the great and sacred responsibilities which, through the will of God, I am now called upon to undertake.

EDWARD, R. I.

Denies the King Has Cancer. London, Feb. 6.—Prof. Sir Felix Semon, physician for diseases of the throat to the National Hospital for Epilepsy and Paralysis and president of the Laryngological Society of London, etc., says there is positively no word of truth in the story published in the United States that King Edward is suffering from cancer of the throat. The physician adds that anyone hearing the king speak in public would know in a minute that there was nothing the matter with his throat.

King Gives Up the Omelette. London, Feb. 6.—In conformity with the course adopted by the former Prince of Wales, afterward King George IV., who resigned the office of grand master when he was appointed regent, King Edward has now resigned the office of grand master of Free Masons in England, which he has held since 1874. But he will retain his connection with masonry under the probable title of protector.

DOINGS OF THE LAW MAKERS.

INDIANA.

Tuesday, February 5.

The joint republican committee on congressional apportionment united on a bill and will submit it to a joint republican caucus Friday. It makes four changes. Johnson county, 800 democratic, is taken from the seventh to the fourth district; Blackford, 295 democratic, goes from the eighth to the seventh; Howard, 1,500 republican, is moved from the eleventh to the ninth; and Decatur, 400 republican, is taken from the fourth and put in the sixth. The measure leaves nine republican and four democratic districts by the last vote. Congressman Landis is greatly strengthened, as is Congressman Watson. Overstreet and Cramer, while the fourth is made still heavier democratic.

WISCONSIN.

Tuesday, February 5.

In the course of a speech before a mass meeting of farmers held at Madison Gov. La Follette made a defense of the primary-election bill pending before the legislature. He especially defended the bill against the charge that under it the cities could control the nomination. Part of his speech was as follows: "When it is remembered that all effort to poll the full vote will be concentrated by all candidates of all parties for all offices upon one and the same day, with the interest of the voters in all these nominations to be served and protected by but a single visit to the polls, no man can for one moment doubt that the entire vote of the country will be polled on primary-election day. Can it be possible that the fear of a full vote in the country is the real cause of opposition to the part of the critics of nominations by direct vote of the people? Let us hope not, for under a primary election, as under general elections, great bodies of men cannot be united and voted as a unit excepting upon some great principle which appeals upon the broadest ground to intelligent judgment."

ILLINOIS.

Tuesday, February 5.

Among the bills introduced were the following: By Mr. McDonough of Chicago—Authorizing cities and villages to license slot machines and fixing the minimum license fee at $50. By Mr. Kinkead—To appoint a game warden in each congressional district at a salary of $1,000 a year and expenses. By Mr. Walter—Amending the law in relation to the employment of children by providing that in all establishments subject to factory inspection where girls and women are employed suitable seats shall be provided for them and they shall be permitted to use these seats when not necessarily employed in active duties. By Mr. Reiss—Providing that any persons who verbally or by written or printed communication threaten to kidnap, wound, maim, kill or murder any person, or in any other manner to such person, or to buy, injure or destroy any building with the intent to extort money or other valuable thing, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding twenty years.

TWO KILLED IN A COLLISION.

Passenger Train on the Erie Road Runs Into an Open Switch.

Bradford, Pa., Feb. 6.—Passenger train No. 10 on the Erie road, made up of café car and Pullman sleepers from Chicago to New York, ran into an open switch and onto the sidetrack at Carrollton, N. Y., at 8:45 last evening and collided with the caboose and locomotive of a freight train. Two persons were killed and one fatally injured. The dead are: W. H. McDermott, conductor of freight train, Hornellsville, N. Y., 49 years old; leaves wife and two children. Joseph Walters, engineer freight train, 45 years old, Hornellsville, N. Y.; leaves wife and four children.

St. Paul East Mail Wrecked. Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 6.—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul fast mail, which leaves Chicago at 9:30 p. m., jumped the track at Western Union junction last night. The engine, two mail cars, baggage car and seven coaches, including two sleepers, were derailed while the train was running a mile a minute. No one was hurt. The engine plowed along the track 500 feet before it was stopped.

Legation Secretary Committed Suicide. Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—A cablegram received here from United States Minister Hunter at Guatemala City states that Sydney B. Everett, secretary in charge of the United States legation there, committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth. He had suffered a long illness and it is understood that the act was committed in a temporary aberration of mind. Mr. Everett was appointed from Massachusetts, being a son of a former chief of the diplomatic bureau of the state department. He was appointed to the consular service as consul at Batavia in May, 1897, and was appointed to Guatemala City June 19 last. His parents are residents of Washington.

Freedom of Thought Denied.

Montreal, Feb. 6.—The resignation, just announced, of Prof. F. J. Steen from the chair of ecclesiastical history and apologetics in the Diocesan Theological college (Church of England), which is affiliated with McGill university, has given rise to much discussion. Prof. Steen has cleared the matter up by frankly declaring that freedom of thought in theological matters was not possible and so he preferred to resign. He will return to New York, where he has friends, he being a native American.

Death of Prof. Salisbury.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 6.—Prof. Edward Eldridge Salisbury, a quarter of a century ago an authority on Sanskrit and comparative philology in Yale college, died in his 87th year. For many years he was connected with the academy faculty of Yale university and was the founder of a professorship of Arabic and Sanskrit. He retired to private life about a quarter of a century ago. He leaves a widow.

"Don't Speak to me."

Overwrought Nerves.

As soon as a woman's nerves become excited by some feminine disorder, she loses control of her speech. She has no patience with anybody or anything. The ones she loves the best are the ones to whom she talks the meanest. Trifles light as air drive her almost frantic. She is worse than crazy, because she knows what she is doing and can't help it. She doesn't have hysteria and doesn't have fainting spells. She is nervous, horribly nervous. Does she get sympathy? Oh, yes, she gets sympathy for awhile, but she acts so outrageously that everybody keeps out of her way as much as possible. After a while they begin to think she's malicious and could do better if she tried real hard. She has turned her best friends against her.

This woman is sick with about the most discouraging sickness women can have, and there is a person who understands her case better than any one else in the world. That person is Mrs. Pinkham. The nervousness comes from some derangement of the feminine organs, and is constantly fed and made worse by the constantly developing disease. Female diseases never get better of themselves. They must have proper treatment. Ordinary physicians do not know how to grapple with these diseases of women. Out of the hundreds of thousands of women Mrs. Pinkham has cured, not one in five hundred tried her advice or her medicine until they had exhausted the skill of their own physician, sometimes of several physicians.

Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass. Her advice is prompt and free to all suffering women.

You may not know that your nervousness comes from female troubles. Your doctor may not know it. He may tell you it does not; but does he cure you? Does he help you any? Mrs. Pinkham will tell you the truth about yourself, and you'll believe her. Don't throw your life's happiness away and make yourself unlovable, when a little diligent heed to Mrs. Pinkham's advice will drive away your nervousness by removing the cause of your trouble.

Read carefully the letters from women Mrs. Pinkham has helped. After thirty years of success in curing women's ills, can you not believe it worth while to test the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

$5000 REWARD

Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, Mass., $5,000, which will be paid to any person who can show that the above testimonials are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writers' special permission.—LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., LYNN, MASS.

Heartfelt Stories from Cured Women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you of the benefit I have received from your wonderful remedies.

"Before taking your Vegetable Compound I was a misery to myself and every one around me. I never laid my aching head upon my pillow without wishing I could die. "I suffered terrible pain in my back, head, and right side, was very nervous, would cry for hours. Menes would appear sometimes in two weeks, then again not for three and four months. I was so tired and weak, could not sleep nights, sharp pains would dart through my heart that would almost cause me to fall. I was so poor and white that my folks thought I was going to die. My mother coaxed me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had no faith in it, but to please her I did so. The first bottle helped me so much that I continued its use. I am now well and weigh more than I ever did in my life. "Your remedies deserve the highest praise."—MRS. WINIFRED ALLENDER, Farmington, Ill.

MRS. SARAH SWODER

MRS. E. J. GOODEN

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female troubles and did nothing for them. Of course, I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb, and inflammation of ovaries. I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of the Compound and a package of the Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine. The first remark that greets me now when I go to any place is, 'How much better you look,' and you may be sure I never hesitate to tell the cause of my health. I have gained twelve pounds during the last two months and am better in every way. Thanks for your kind attention and advice."—MRS. E. J. GOODEN, Ackley, Iowa.

THE STATE REFORMATORY.

The state reformatory at Green Bay is the youngest of the state institutions, but by no means the least important. The institution was established two years ago and was strongly endorsed by Governor Scofield. Its object, as the name implies, is purely reformatory. The inmates are all young men known as first offenders. Many of them come from good families and in many instances it is found that the father, rather than the boy, is responsible indirectly, for the boy's mistake. Responsible at least to the extent that he failed to appreciate the boy's ambition to have a little money, and a little independence, at an age when the average boy is restless and ambitious.

If this class of boys commit a crime and are sent to Waupun, and thrown in contact with confirmed criminals, the association is demoralizing, and a taint attaches to the boy's character that follows him through life.

The object of the state reformatory is to save this class of boys, and the object is not only humane, but God-like. How well the work is succeeding may be determined by the fact that out of 170 boys committed within two years, something like forty of them are now paroled, leading honest lives, and to all all appearances, thoroughly reformed.

There are at present about 130 boys in the reformatory, while cell room is only provided for 108. The legislature is asked for an appropriation for another building, which it will doubtless grant. There is no work in the state of greater importance, unless it be the state reform school at Waukesha, where 350 younger boys are being intelligently trained for good citizenship, under the very efficient management of Superintendent Merica, one of the best men for that work in the state.

The Green Bay reformatory is under the management of Hon. James E. Heg, formerly president of the State Board of Control. Mr. Heg has made a study of criminology, and is not only thoroughly well informed, but is a tireless, enthusiastic worker. He takes a personal interest in his boys, and when they leave him, they are well equipped with a trade, as well as a good moral character, if possible to supply it.

The state owns a large tract of land at Green Bay, and the plan of the reformatory contemplates a number of buildings and a plant similar to the one at Elmira, N. Y., only on a smaller scale. The state will contribute generously to the development of this philanthropy. It is infinitely better to save young men to society, than to lock them up for a term of years, and then turn them loose as confirmed criminals, with every avenue closed to them, even if they had a disposition to reform.

Wisconsin occupies an enviable position, and leads many of the states in efforts to reform and care for her dependent and defective classes. While the Green Bay reformatory was considered by some as an experiment, it has already passed the experimental age, and will continue to accomplish good results.

DEPENDENT CHILDREN.

One of the most important of the state institutions is the School for Dependent Children, located at Sparta. The object of this school—or more properly, temporary home—is to care for the dependent children of the state, until they can be placed in good permanent homes. Agents are employed, not only to find homes, but to see that the children are properly treated in the homes, and the work is very efficient. The children are wards of the state, and the watchcare and guardianship does not cease, even after they are indentured, until the child is of age.

Some 1,500 poor children have been placed in good homes during the past fifteen years, and many of them have gone out into life self-supporting, independent citizens.

It is never difficult to find homes for this class of children, if they are free from physical and moral defects. There seems to be an abundance of homes for bright and attractive children and this class are never kept long in the institution.

The State Board of Control has the supervision of the Sparta home, and have very wisely decided to recommend the enlargement of its usefulness by asking the legislature to pass a bill providing for the care of cripples and babies. The age limit now is three years and cripples are not admitted. There can be no objection to the bill, as it is humane in spirit, and worthy of every encouragement.

M. T. Park of Elkhorn is the superintendent of the Sparta school, and is doing good work. Through the active work of agents the population has been reduced very materially during the past two years, and with the advent of good times, a smaller number of dependent children are found.

There is ample room to accommodate the babies and cripples, and it will be a great blessing to them when the law permits their admission.

TWO WISE MEASURES.

Assemblyman Orton will soon present a bill to restore capital punishment in the state, and to provide a proper penalty for the crime of kidnapping. Both measures are good. The former will have a tendency to decrease the crime of murder, as well as to control the mob law, so prevalent in states where capital punishment is abolished, and the latter will tend to make unpopular the fad of kidnapping children, that is now going on to an alarming extent.

The Methodist ministers of Chicago, discussed, in their Monday meeting, the propriety of inviting Mrs. Carrie Nation, of Kansas lunacy, to Chicago. Some of them expressed sympathy for her, but wiser counsel prevailed, and the matter was dropped. The Methodist church can hardly afford to carry its radical temperance notions to the extent of encouraging lawlessness, however much a few of its erratic clergymen may sympathize with Mrs. Nation.

The anti-canteen law is now in effect and it will soon be known what the measure is worth as a reform influence. The law was passed over the protest of every military man of practical experience, and at the instigation of a lot of women with the rhetorical notion of camp and army life. The result promises to be as harmful as prohibition in Kansas.

An error in these columns Monday made the paper say that the present membership of the Grand Army was 30,000. The figures should have been 300,000.

Late reports state that New York City's pay roll is $40,000,000 per year. That is more than the state of Wisconsin spends in ten years.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. JANE M'LAY

Conducted At Her Late Home By Rev. S. G. Huey and Rev. J. T. Henderson.

The funeral services of Mrs. Jane M'LAY were conducted at 1 o'clock this afternoon from her late home on Milwaukee avenue, by Rev. S. G. Huey of the Scotch Presbyterian church, and Rev. J. T. Henderson of this city. The sermon was preached by the former, from the words of St. Paul, "I have fought the good fight; I have finished the course; I have kept the faith."

The house was filled with friends and neighbors, many coming from Johnston, the old home of the M'LAY family. Floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, enough to completely cover the casket and the floor underneath.

Mrs. Elizabeth Zuill, John Zuill and family, and David Zuill and family, relatives of the deceased, were present from Whitewater.

The pall bearers were old family friends—David Clark and James Menzies of Rock Prairie; and John Harvey and H. Cunningham of Janesville, formerly of Johnston. Interment was at Johnston Center.

The Man-Fearing spirit, St. Clair McElwain, editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, speaking for the laity at the celebration at Rev. Dr. Meredith's church recently, said that at the root of the caste spirit, too often found in churches, is the man-fearing spirit.

GRAFT SKIN FROM THE DEAD.

Experiment Tried at Minneapolis a Gratifying Success.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 6.—For the first time on record skin taken from a dead person has been successfully grafted onto a living man, and the latter is getting well. The man upon whom the experiment was tried is Nicholas Sossong, who was fearfully burned with nitric acid some time ago. Huge patches of the skin came off and the surgeons tried in vain to secure enough skin from living persons to supply the deficiency.

One night when it was seen that a patient in the next room in the hospital could live but a few hours, preparations were made for removing large portions of his skin as soon as the breath left the body. When death came the corpse was taken in Sossong's room and there in the gray hours of the morning the body was flayed and the skin placed upon the exposed flesh of Sossong's body.

Seventy-five inches of epidermis was thus transferred, and to the surprise of the surgeons it began to take root at once. In a week it was practically the skin Sossong has always had. Then another man died and the same performance was repeated, with the same result. All of the grafts are in a remarkably healthy condition and Sossong is on the road to recovery.

MAD BULL GOES A BANKER.

His Wife Kills It with Pitchfork After Desperate Fight.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Walter Goggen, wife of the president of the Houston County Bank at Caladenia, this state, is a heroine, having saved her husband from being gored to death by a mad bull, killing the animal with a pitchfork. While Goggen was viewing his herd a big bull made an attack upon him. The banker was knocked down and tramped upon in a frightful manner. Mrs. Goggen heard his cries, rushed from the house, and seeing the trouble, seized a pitchfork and attacked the animal, which turned to meet her. She stood her ground, and time after time plunged the weapon into the side and throat of the infuriated bull. How long she fought she does not know, but certain it is that she finally killed the animal, the times of the fork penetrating his heart. Goggen may recover. His wife, aside from suffering from a nervous shock, is none the worse for her fight.

GETS MONEY FOR COUNT BONI

Countess Castellane Sells Property to Financially Aid Husband.

New York, Feb. 6.—The World says: "Countess Castellane has sold her interest in several pieces of New York property to help relieve the financial difficulties of her husband. Her brother, Edwin Gould, is the purchaser. 'The countess owned a one-sixth interest in the properties—her share as one of the six children of Jay Gould. She is the first one of the Gould children to dispose of an interest in the great fortune.'"

"The revenue stamps affixed to the deeds would indicate that Countess Anna received only $43,500. The market value of the property should make her share worth at least twice that amount."

HISS VICTORIA'S NAME.

Kruger Is Cheered and Roberts Denounced by Chicago Audience.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Wild waves of enthusiasm for everything that was Boer with storms of hisses and howls of derision for British, her soldiers and her rulers, swept over a Central Music hall audience last night. Thundering cheers for Kruger, Steyn, Dewet and Botha rang out with cries of "shame" for Kitchener and Lord Roberts from the audience which had assembled to hear the Boer envoys, Hercules D. Viljoen and P. Louter Wessels, plead their cause. The mention of the name of Queen Victoria called forth hisses and denunciations from the crowd. When Clarence S. Darrow scored the British people his auditors howled with delight. "You do not grant the Chinaman the right of citizenship, but yet he is not half as dangerous to the prosperity and liberty of this country as are the British," declared Mr. Darrow, and the tumults of applause which greeted him lasted for several minutes.

Greatest Iron Mine.

With a record to its credit of 1,000,000 tons of iron ore mined during the past 12 months, the Norrie mine, on the Gogebic range, may be considered the greatest iron ore producing mine in the world, says The Scientific American. This output represents about one-fifth of the annual ore supply of the Carnegie Steel company, limited.

The Norrie mine has been in operation during the past 15 years. Several years ago the Oliver Mining company, under which name the ore plants of the Carnegie interests are operated, obtained control of the Norrie mine, and since that time there have been wonderful improvements in the methods of mining and handling the ore and preparing it for lake shipment to the Carnegie docks at Conneaut. More than 3,000 tons of ore are mined and shipped each working day of the year.

The railroads which carry the product to the docks have been brought to the very mouth of the mine. The "skip" cars which convey the ore from the mine dump their contents into immense ore pockets, which in turn empty into the railroad cars waiting beneath to receive their load. When there is an oversupply of ore, the surplus is dumped on the stock pile. Mining never ceases. The aspect of the Norrie mine is very different from that of the Menominee range, where great ore pits can be seen. The Norrie is a mine in the true sense of the word, for there is no open pit, no evidence of the ceaseless activity far beneath the surface.

The mine now known as the Norrie includes workings in which were four separate mines formerly, known as North, East and West Norrie and the Pabst. Two additional mines, the Vaughn and the Aurora, are also operated by the company under the name of Norrie, but their product forms a separate account. If the output were included with that of the Norrie, the sum total would be much in excess of 1,000,000 tons per year.

SHARE THE PROFITS WITH EMPLOYEES

Plan Adopted by the Baker Manufacturing Company of Evansville—Striking Benefit to Them.

Evansville, Wis., Feb. 6.—The Baker Manufacturing company has adopted a profit sharing plan by which its employees are strikingly benefited and there is great rejoicing over the liberality of the company.

The sum presented to the employees as their shares of the profits of the past year is equal to 82.7 per cent of their wages for the year. Of this amount 15 per cent was paid in cash and 85 per cent in stock of the company bearing 5 per cent interest, making a total cash present to the men of about 20 per cent of their wages for the year.

The pay roll for the year amounted to $41,826, and the amount disbursed as the men's share of the profits was $5,038.50 in cash and $26,551.50 in stock. The company manufactures windmills and has a large trade throughout the west. Almeron Eager is president and Allen S. Baker treasurer and manager.

Joyce-Gillispie.

Surrounded by relatives and friends at 7:30 o'clock this morning at St. Patrick's church, the magic words were spoken by Rev. J. J. Collins that united J. A. Joyce and Margaret Gillispie. The bride was attended by Margaret Coen, while Edward M. Joyce, brother of the groom, was best man. Both bride and groom are life long residents of this city, the groom being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Joyce, and the bride the daughter of Neil Gillispie. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father, on High street. The happy couple left for Springfield, Ohio, and on their return will go to housekeeping in a costly furnished house on Holmes street.

TEARFUL,

Trembling, frightened, she knows not why. Between her sobs she tells her husband of her misery. It is not enough for the husband to comfort the wife in this condition, she needs help.

In those early days when the shadow of maternity first begins to fall upon the woman she is often nervous, sleepless, without appetite, and full of vague fears.

The help needed by women at this crisis is fully furnished by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It nourishes the nerves and so quiets them. It restores the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. It gives physical strength and mental buoyancy to meet the trial of motherhood, and makes the baby's advent practically painless.

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. P. S. Douglas, of Milwaukee, Bruce Co. Que. "During the first four months when I looked to becoming a mother I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I had all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each and when I took them a few days I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of any one, and could do my work without any trouble (I could not do anything before), I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick to get these medicines or write to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels.

AEOLIANS AND PIANOLAS

The wonderful musical instruments by which any business man without any practice whatever can play all the classical and popular music ever written. Every home ought to have one. Wherever there is a piano there should be a Pianola to play it and the Aeolian is a complete orchestra in itself. Sold on easy terms of payment. Our traveling representative, Mr. J. P. Hulder, with instruments is now in this city at Myer's Hotel. Send him your address on a postal card and he will be glad to give you an opportunity to personally investigate the Aeolian or Pianola, or call on him at the hotel. Nothing you could bring into your home would give so much pleasure. Write today. Investigation costs nothing. A very beautiful catalogue free.

CHIEF INSPECTS THE FIRE POLICE

SOMEWHAT OUT OF ORDINARY
RUN OF INSPECTIONS.

Secretary Heimstreet Entertains the Boys in His Own Private Rooms and Sets Up a "Tempting Spread" as the Society Reporters Would Put It.

The annual inspection of the Janesville fire police was somewhat out of the ordinary run of inspections and the boys would be willing to have the inspectors come more than once a year if they could have the same treatment every time that they received last night at the hands of Secretary Heimstreet.

Notices had been sent that the inspection this year would be held at the home of the secretary and that every member must appear in full regalia. There was some conjecture as to what was going to happen for the reason that 6:30 o'clock was somewhat early to hold an inspection. After they had all gathered at the home of the secretary they were invited to take seats at a table that was spread to accommodate the entire fire police force, Mayor Richardson, Chief Engineer Spencer and J. P. Baker and T. S. Nolan, members of the fire and police commission.

A luncheon consisting of escalloped oysters, sliced ham, salads, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake and many other things was served to the guests by Mrs. Heimstreet in a manner that showed she was no novice at such entertainments. To hear the number of fire stories told at this time by the boys, one not initiated into the mysteries of fire fighting would think that the town was full of hot air and on fire the most of the time.

After the luncheon the boys lined up and Chief Spencer gave them an official inspection and seemed well satisfied with the result.

Mayor Richardson made a short speech and complimented the company on the fine appearance they presented. George M. McKee then took the floor and soon had the most of the boys guessing as to what might happen if George was allowed to spring one of his private decks at a social gathering. His work of locating hidden articles while blindfolded was very good and received well merited applause.

Secretary Heimstreet looks upon the organization with pride from the fact that for the last twenty-six years he has been secretary of the company and the records are all in his handwriting. The fact that Secretary Heimstreet is one of the oldest and most enthusiastic members of the company was not forgotten by the other members and before the time for departure arrived S. C. Burnham in behalf of the boys presented Secretary Heimstreet with a handsome reclining chair as a slight token of their esteem.

The boys one and all hope that Secretary Heimstreet will live to remain a member of the company for many years to come.

CHILDREN'S MUSICALS

An Unusually Pleasant Event Under the Direction of Miss L. B. Stevens Last Night.

An unusually pleasant musical event took place last evening in the Court Street M. E. church Sunday school room where the children's musicals was given under the direction of Miss L. B. Stevens. The piano solo by Miss Tassie Nott and the duet by the Misses Nott and Sherer were of exceptional merit.

The vocal duet by Paul and Ruth Taylor, the solo by Vera Lyntz, who substituted at the last moment and the soprano solo of Chester Morse showed abundant taste feeling and remarkably good voices.

Pearl Peter's recitation, "The Cross of the Legion of Honor," was well done and as a reaction from the serious side Russel Hall was heard in a humorous selection which brought a smile to every face.

The night gown song by four little girls given at Christmas time was repeated with additional effect.

The object was to raise money to help purchase new singing books and though the audience was not so large as hoped yet there is a little credit balance in the treasury and those participating are conscious that good work was done.

Orfordville must be a good banking center. A short time ago a bank with a capital stock of $25,000, was opened up, and yesterday a new organization was formed with $25,000 capital, and a safe and fixtures purchased to conduct a state bank and do a general banking business. Most of the stock was taken by Orfordville residents but some was disposed of to Janesville parties.

FACTORY TO LOCATE IN SPRING BROOK

CANNING PEOPLE SELECT A SITE ON WHICH TO BUILD.

Contracts and All Papers Drawn Up and Ready to Sign Just As Soon As the $5,000 Bonus Is Delivered—Buildings They Propose to Erect on the Spring Brook Site.

There is now no question but that the canning factory will locate in this city if the balance of the $5,000 bonus is raised and a site for their plant given them.

Mr. P. A. Marsh and Mr. P. A. Hohenadel, the promoters of the industry, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and had a conference with the committee that has the matter in charge.

They were taken about and shown the different sites for the location of the plant and finally settled on Spring Brook as the place best suited for their purpose. There are two sites in Spring Brook offered them but they have not yet fully decided which one of the two they will take.

Spring Brook is the only place where a site could be selected that answered all of their requirements. It is on the line of both railroads, has electric car service, electric lights, city water and good sewerage. All of these things are required to conduct the plant successfully.

The articles of agreement between the committee and these gentlemen have been drawn up and will be signed as soon as the balance of the bonus is subscribed. An effort will be made at once to get the balance of the required amount subscribed so that the gentlemen can be given an answer within a week.

As soon as these matters are settled the company will send their superintendent and he will go over the country and make contracts for acreage. The factory as proposed is a much larger institution than people are aware of and requires a huge tract of land to get all the proposed buildings on it and cannot be cramped for room.

The dimensions of the buildings proposed to be erected by the company are as follows: Main store house, two stories high with a twelve foot basement, 240x42. Canning and retort building 128x32. Pickle tank building 150x48. Husking machine building 128x32. Silo 80x32. Engine and boiler room 40x48. In all it will cover 32,000 feet of ground floor space. These buildings are considerably larger than what was figured on when the factory was first thought of.

Messrs. Hohenadel and Marsh left last night for home but are ready to commence on their part of the contract as soon as the citizens fulfill theirs.

GEO. M. RANDALL IS WELL KNOWN HERE

The Newly Created Brigadier General
Has a Brother Living in City of Janesville.

General George M. Randall, a brother of Charles F. Randall of this city, is among those whose names were sent to the senate yesterday by President McKinley as being nominated by him for the office of brigadier general. General Randall is now military commander at Fort St. Michals. General George M. Randall entered the army as a private in company A, 4th Pennsylvania infantry, April 20, 1861 and has risen through merit to his present position. He has received promotions for gallant and meritorious services during the rebellion at the battle of Antietam, Maryland at Petersburg, Va., also in actions against the Indians at Turret Mountain and Diamond Butte, Arizona in 1873 and at Pinal, Arizona in 1874.

General Randall has seen a great amount of hard service and has undergone any number of hardships during his long term of army life. No one will rejoice more over his good fortune than his friends in Janesville.

PLAN TO DECORATE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

Woman's Auxiliary Assumes Contract to Fresco Auditorium and Lecture Room.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. met at the association building yesterday afternoon and reviewed the work done for the past year and decided on the plan for the coming season.

Last year the ladies assumed the responsibility of furnishing the bedding for the dormitories which comprise about twenty-five sleeping apartments. One hundred and twenty-five dollars were expended for this purpose. The money was raised by suppers, entertainments, etc., which divided the work among the many.

This year the ladies propose to decorate the auditorium and lecture room in the front part of the building. They estimate that the work will cost in the neighborhood of $125 and their present plan is to solicit the necessary funds.

The institution has been a vital force in the city long enough for the community to recognize its aim and scope and it is firmly believed the public will cheerfully render assistance to a cause which is accomplishing a worthy work.

People are requested to respond to the solicitors in proportion to their means.

The recently improved ventilation makes the rooms pleasant assembly halls but they will be far more attractive when suitably frescoed. The committee on decoration comprises the same ladies who had in charge the decoration of the Congregational church which is restful and harmonious.

These ladies are Mesdames Eldrid, Childs and Van Alkin. The contract has not yet been awarded but it will be shortly and the work will begin by the middle of this month. The next entertainment on the Y. M. C. A. lecture course will fall on March 11, and by that date the ladies plan to have the work completed and the room ready for the public.

A USE FOR EVERYTHING.

Nothing Yet Ever Created
Without a Purpose.

A Theory Difficult to be Believed in Some Instances.

Many Think Nature Might Have Been Improved Upon in Many Ways.

We all wonder why certain things were ever made, why certain animals or insects were allowed to live. And yet there is no doubt but that everything was intended for some purpose, and as civilization advances, such purposes are discovered.

Cod liver oil is something that everybody knows to have been a wise provision of Providence, to be used as a medicine in all wasting diseases. Why Nature should have appended to this valuable remedy its horrible odor and most terrible taste is also something that many have wondered at. But that was Nature's way. She gave to man the crude material, and has left it to his intelligence to overcome many of its objectionable features.

This is exactly what has happened in regard to cod liver oil. Everybody knows its value. Everybody knows how necessary it is for physicians to prescribe it in many instances. Everybody also knows that it is one of the most terrible medicines to take that can be imagined. There is no longer need of taking it; that is, in the form in which we have been accustomed to know it.

Mr. Smith, of Smith's pharmacy, of this city, has associated himself with a Boston house which is producing a preparation known as Vinol—Wine of Cod Liver Oil. This is not a patent medicine. Anyone may see on the label on each bottle, or Mr. Smith will tell any one who calls on him, exactly what it is. He has explained yesterday: "We have simply found out how to extract the active medicinal principles from the cod's liver that has made cod liver oil valuable. This we may obtain in the form of a concentrated extract. The grease with all its vile odor, is left behind. That too, has its purposes. It is valuable for dressing leather, but as for its being any way good for man as a medicine, it is absolutely worthless."

"Now we take the medicine that we have obtained, or the concentrated medicinal properties of the cod's liver, and place just the right quantity of this extract in a delicious, mild table wine and there you have the whole story. Anybody can learn in a minute that Vinol is tasteless. Any one who is compelled to take cod liver oil can find out in a few days how much more benefit can be derived from Vinol than could ever have been obtained from cod liver oil in its crude form."

Mr. Smith's enthusiasm in regard to Vinol is indeed well founded. The preparation which he is handling will be in a short time one of the best known in the world.

No one would ever be bothered with constipation if everyone knew how naturally and quickly Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the stomach and bowels. Cures croup, sore throat, pulmonary troubles—Monarch over pain of every sort. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. TWO PERISH IN FLAMES

Three Others Seriously Injured in Fire at Hampton Hotel, Feb. 6.

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Two persons perished and three were fatally injured in a fire which totally destroyed the Exposition hotel in this city today.

The dead: Harry Severson, aged about 30 years, a musician; burned beyond recognition; Sid Holland, aged 39, a horseman; suffocated. Fatally injured: Tom Cook, a racing man; burned about the head and body; John Regan, face, head and body frightfully burned and internally injured in jumping from a third story window.

The fire started about 3 o'clock and as the hotel was situated quite a distance from the center of the city the flames gained great headway before the arrival of the firemen. There were about twenty-five persons in the building, most of whom escaped. A number leaped from the second and third story windows and few of those were slightly hurt. The body of Severson, partly dressed, was found on a bed. Holland's body was lying on the floor near the window in another room and the position indicated that the man attempted to escape, but had lost his way in the dense smoke. The monetary loss on the building and effects will amount to $10,000.

Wolves Invade a Big City.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 6.—Timber wolves are causing a reign of terror in the northeastern portion of the city, where several of the brutes have been killed during the last few days. The animals have been driven in from the outlying districts by hunger and several persons out late at night have had narrow escapes. A wolf attacked the attendants at the city reservoir yesterday and was shot. Three wolves treed a man a short distance away and kept him until men with guns appeared. A wolf hunt will be held in the near future.

Shoots Infant Sister Dead.

Creston, Ia., Feb. 6.—While James Tag was in town summoning a physician to attend his sick wife Don, the eight-year-old son, and Lela, the four-year-old daughter, were playing in the smokehouse. Don unearthed an old shotgun. He and his sister went in the yard and began playing soldier. Don was taking his sister prisoner. He pointed the gun at her, the muzzle being close to the girl's head, and pulled the trigger. The little one's head was literally blown off.

Copper Boom in Wisconsin.

Ashland, Wis., Feb. 6.—A copper boom has struck northern Wisconsin and the Ashland land office was busier today than it has been since the Omaha and Wisconsin Central lands were opened up in 1890. People flocked in line before 7 o'clock in the morning and over 100 from Minneapolis, West Superior and other points in northern Wisconsin filed on claims.

Best Furnaces Resumed.

Lorain, O., Feb. 6.—The blast furnaces of the Lorain Steel company have resumed operations after an idleness of over six months. The entire plant of the company is now being worked to its fullest capacity, giving employment to 3,500 men.

Sweden's Queen Very Ill.

London, Feb. 6.—The queen of Sweden and Norway is suffering from a dangerous affection of the throat, says the Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Telegraph. "Her strength is much reduced and her condition very serious."

CHILDLESS WOMEN

ADOPTING BABIES

Demand for Foundlings Among the People in the Vicinity and in Greater New York.

New York, Feb. 6.—Only two little waifs, thin and ailing, remain on Superintendent Blair's baby-bargain counter at Randall's island. They are the "scraps" as Matron Dunphy calls them. No one in the steady procession of childless women, whose hearts ached for the love of a little one, wanted the frail little mites. All the other babies have been spoken for and tagged, and there was not half enough to go round. The surprising fact suddenly dawned upon Matron Dunphy for the first time that there are not near enough babies in New York.

The women came in droves, but all except those who came early in the morning went away disappointed. All the babies available on demand had been taken. Two hundred women visited the island during the day to get one of the little foundlings, that they had heard that Superintendent Blair was to give away to anyone who wanted a baby. An item in the newspapers had brought thousands who are pining for the sunshine of a babe in the home. Philanthropic women, who, as the heads of societies, spend fortunes and many hours trying to find homes for foundlings, were amazed at the wonderful response of the childless.

From everywhere around New York men and women come to look at the foundlings. They were of every age and condition. There were wives from the east side, lonely, loveless women of the fashionable quarters of the city; couples from the suburbs and one woman from Philadelphia. Two women from Stamford, Conn., came for a baby each. The rich and the poor were almost equally represented. Many women had almost full suits of baby clothing, expecting to pick out babies, dress them and take them away. One woman out of every half dozen brought a nurse with her to take the foundling back. All were disappointed when they learned of the formality required by the city regulations before a foundling can be taken away.

None of the babies has as yet been taken from the island. Superintendent Blair has a list of all those who have picked out babies and he set three investigators at work to go around and determine whether the applicants are fit persons to have the custody of a child. He must be satisfied that the family taking away a foundling is not only of good character, but perfectly able to take care of the little one.

Pilgrims Short of Funds.

HERE IS HEALTH

For all who have Weak Lungs

FREE

EDITOR'S NOTE—The Slocum System is medicine reduced to an exact science by the world's foremost specialists, and our readers are urged to take advantage of Dr. Slocum's generous offer.

THESE FOUR REMEDIES

Represent a new system of treatment and cure, for the weak and for those suffering from CONSUMPTION, wasting diseases or inflammatory conditions of the nose, throat, and lungs.

The treatment is free. You have only to write to obtain it.

Its efficiency is explained as simply as possible below.

By the new system devised by DR. T. A. SLOCUM, the great specialist in pulmonary and kindred diseases, all the requirements of the sick body are supplied by the FOUR remedies constituting his Special Treatment known as the Slocum System.

Whatever your disease, one or more of these four preparations will be of benefit to you.

According to the needs of your case, fully explained in the Treatise given free with the free medicine, you may take one, or any two, or three, or all four, in combination.

A cure is certain if the simple directions are followed.

The remedies are especially adapted for those who suffer from grip, weak lungs, coughs, sore throat, catarrh, CONSUMPTION, and other pulmonary troubles.

But they are also of wonderful efficacy in the upbuilding of weak systems, in purifying the blood, making flesh, and restoring to weak, shallow people vigorous and healthy constitutions.

The many ailments of women and delicate children are speedily relieved.

The basis of the entire System is a flesh-building, nerve and tissue-enriching food.

Every invalid and sick person needs strength. This food gives it.

Many people get the complete system for the sake of the Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which they themselves need, and give a way the other three preparations to their friends.

The second article is a tonic. It is good for weak, thin, dyspeptic, nervous people, for those who have no appetite, who need bracing up.

Thousands take only the Emulsion and the Tonic.

The third preparation is a medicinal healing cream, in patent Oozell nasal tubes. It cures catarrh. It heals all irritation of the nose, throat and mucous membranes.

It gives immediate relief. It is also a dainty application for sore lips, chapped hands, cold sores, rough skin, etc.

Perhaps many thousands of our readers need the Oozell Cure for Catarrh without any of the other articles.

The fourth article is an Expectorant and Cough Cure. Can positively be relied upon. It is absolutely safe for children, goes to the very root of the trouble, and not merely alleviates, but cures.

The four preparations form a panoply of strength against disease in whatever shape it may attack you.

WRITE FOR FREE TRIAL.

To obtain these FOUR preparations, illustrated above, that have never yet failed to cure, all you have to do is to write to giving your address. The four remedies will then be sent you direct from laboratories. When writing the doctor state that you saw this advertisement in the Janesville Gazette, and greatly oblige.

Omega Oil

For Any Pain

A sprained thumb, arm, wrist or ankle, a stiff elbow or knee, a lame back or shoulder, an aching hip or leg—all these things are alike to Omega Oil. An ache is an ache, and a pain is a pain wherever located in the flesh, muscles or joints, and Omega Oil is the proper liniment to use. Rub it in, and the hurting will stop. Don't be afraid of using it, because it won't burn or blister. Nature makes this oil for exactly this purpose, and Nature has never made a mistake since the beginning of time. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.
